

Professional Learning Framework

Teachers refine their professional knowledge, skills, practice and values as described in the Victorian Teaching Profession's Code of Conduct, Code of Ethics and the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers.

As professional learning can take a variety of forms, the Professional Learning Framework outlines these opportunities to support teachers on their professional learning journey.

The below demonstrates the interrelationships between ethical practice, professional knowledge and professional learning.

